THE SCANDALS.

When men in high Government places are publicly accused of serious wrong doing, the public expect Parliament, regardless of party politics, to protect the interests of the people. The action of the Liberal members of the Senate, when such an occasion did occur, is in marked contrast with the position assumed by the Conservative party in the House of Commons. When the Tarte McGreevy charges were made in the House, the Government and every supporter, acting only as honest men could act, demanded the fullest investigation only urging a suspension of judgment until such time as Parliament's most important committee should submit their report. The country was satisfied with the steps taken, and the best evidence that faith has been kept by the majority is shown by no member of the House having as yet complained that the Government have failed in pushing the enquiry to the fullest extent. Later on, an equally if not more serious, charge was made in the Senate, when certain amendments to the charter of the Baie des Chaleurs railway were before that body. It was then publicly claimed as easy of proof, that large sums of public money already voted this company had been used for illegitimate purposes. That through agents, leading members of the Liberal government of Quebec, of which Hon. Honore Mercier, Count of the Holy Roman Empire, and confidential political adviser to the Hon. Wilfred Laurier, was the head, secured a large proportion of the funds for their own personal use. An investigation was at once demanded, but the high standard of purity which leading Liberals have so long assumed could not stand the shock, and instead of meeting the charges by a demand for the most searching enquiry, as Conservatives had done when their party was assailed, these supposed emblems of purity undertook by every means to block a fair square investigation of the accusations. A great majority of the Senate, fortunately for Canada, are made of more virtuous material, and would not allow the division court objections of the Hon. Messrs. Scott and Power, Liberal leaders, to stop the course of justice, and at present one of the most interesting cases ever before that body is being examined into. A peculiar feature of the situation was the action taken by Hon. Mr. Laurier once the case was opened. Forgetting his pretensions of purity, he does not hesitate to use his position as leader of the Liberal party, and advises a certain political ally to take an ocean voyage and thus avoid exposing his connection with the unwholesome transactions, and Mr. Pacaud, one of the most important witnesses of all is thus gotten out of the way, so far as he is concerned the Liberal leaders are free from any exposure. Such methods are not only questionable, but will fail to accomplish the end desired. The public may look for some startling developments within a few days in connection with this important railway steal. The case must not be prejudged no matter how suspicious the circumstances may appear. The people have a right to demand however, that after what has occurred, the trial shall proceed in the most liberal spirit. They will refuse to tolerate further obstruction tactics on the part of either Mr. Laurier or his brother Liberals Senators Scott and Power. These men will be false to their country and the Liberal party if they fail to accept the invitation of Hon. Mr. Abbott when in public debate he says:

"I would ask the hon. gentleman opposite to join with us in trying to find out what the facts are about this alleged rascality. We ask them to give us the benefit of their experience in this enquiry, to assist us in ascertaining the facts and placing them before the public, in order that they may be dealt with properly, and if found guilty that summary vengeance may be exercised upon those who are found guilty of appropriating public money—stealing—be they high or low. That is the determination of this Government and this side of the House, and I appeal to my hon. friends opposite to assist us in an enquiry of a precisely similar kind to that which is proceeding in another place on a subject which is legitimately before us, and help us to probe that enquiry to the bottom and then join us in punishing the guilty afterwards."

This closing sentence has the tone about it. With a Prime Minister holding and practising such sentiments Canada has no cause to be afraid of her future, and the party he leads can continue to be satisfied that the confidence of the people will continue to be reposed in them. It is such action as has been taken by the Hon. Mr. Laurier and Senators Scott and Power that hurts a country's reputation abroad. Steals may and as a fact do occur, in every country but if our public men take energetic steps to stamp out such practice by punishing those found guilty, the country's reputation will not be affected. It is when leaders are found advising evasion of the law and by other means undertake to prevent honest investigation, that a serious wrong is done the people and the reputation of a country is destroyed.

The following Act, now before Parliament, will no doubt be taken advantage of by a number of settlers in this district. We understand several cases were not properly looked after in the previous issue. The Government has taken this method for ensuring a settlement of every claim:

"Notwithstanding any limits of time prescribed in the Act passed in the session held in the forty-eighth and forty-ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter seventy three, or in the Act passed in the forty-ninth year of Her Majesty's reign, chapter twenty-nine, the Governor in Council may grant a free homestead or scrip, as therein provided to any person who is entitled thereto under the said Acts but has not already been granted such homestead or scrip: Provided that such person complies, within six months after the issue of the warrant of the Minister of Militia mentioned in section three of the Act hereinbefore cited, with the conditions required by the said Acts to be complied with on or before the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty six: Provided also, that the provisions of the said Acts shall, so far as applicable, apply to grants of land or scrip under the authority of this Act."

It is reported that Mr. Dennis, Inspector of surveys, is shortly to visit this district. We trust it is for the object of looking into the importance of an immediate subdivision of townships north of the river. Our Board of Trade is taking an active interest in that country, and recently the Saskatchewan has devoted some space towards urging the importance of looking after this same section, the value of which we have for years been advocating and have never stopped urging the Government to place in the market. The season is advancing, and all interested should be willing to assist in urging on Mr. Dennis, if he has any authority in such a direction, the wisdom of placing a surveyor in this particular field and to get him there without any further delay. Delay in this matter is most harassing to those citizens who see in the opening up of the northern limits a source of wealth to this part of the Territories in particular and the whole country in general.

The fears entertained by us last week appear now to have been premature. Since the article was written the Northwest Bill has received its second reading, and the prospects are that no important changes to the original draft will be made while it is going through committee. Col. O'Brien acting leader of the noble thirteen, announced that no school amendments would be introduced during the present session. According to the latest I heard the committee had not reached the last clause of the bill, which deals with the temperance question. The same reasons which prompted the action of those opposed to our school system may have governed the temperance party in which case the bill has no doubt passed, and now only awaits the Governor-General's assent to become our constitution.

The situation in Quebec is becoming alarming. Nearly all those prominent in the politics of that province have become so seriously indisposed that they have been obliged to suddenly seek a change of air. Some are now in France while others are domiciled at different American summer resorts. Owing to the fund of knowledge these men possess, their absence is just now deplored by Canadians generally.

It is simply astonishing that so many important individuals in the local politics of Quebec, should become suddenly ill and find themselves unable to attend as witnesses at the Senate investigation of the affairs of the Baie des Chaleurs Railway.

Alberta is making arrangements to send an exhibition east again this fall. While this method of advertising the country is expensive, it certainly is the most valuable one yet discovered.

The Lethbridge News is about changing hands. The proprietors have been induced to lease the plant to a company of local men.

ANNUAL MATCHES

OF THE SASKATCHEWAN PROVINCIAL ASSOCIATION.

The ninth annual matches of the above association took place on the new ranges north of the town Thursday and Friday last. The weather was execrable, a heavy cold wind blowing during the matches. The attendance this year was not as good as usual, which was mainly owing to the river having to be crossed and the bad state of the road leading to the ranges, a trouble which will be got over before next season, as by that time a good road will have been made across the muskeg. Notwithstanding the bad weather etc., some very good scores were made during the meeting. For the grand aggregate Corp. Kerr was the fortunate man, winning the D. R. A. silver medal, with Staff-Sergt. Parker a close second, who takes the bronze medal. Corp. Connors was the winner of the special prize—a silver teapot—donated by Geo. S. Davison, Esq., for the best score at 500 yards, while Sergt. Bailey took the second prize—a dozen silver table spoons—presented by the same gentleman. J. D. Hannafin's special prize of $5 in the nursery match was won by Geo. McKay, while President Baker's special of $10 in the association match was taken by "old reliable," Corp. Kerr. In the Clarke match the first prize—a silver cup donated by the late Hon. L. Clarke, and a silver medal donated by Mr. Sheriff Hughes—was taken by Maj. Cotton, Sergt. Bailey carrying off Mr. Bett's prize—a meerschaum pipe—for second place, while Geo. McKay secured third place and a small cash prize. The team matches were keenly contested, the Police team carrying the first prize and the team captained by Mayor Johnson taking second honors. In the ladies' match the usual keen competition took place though the attendance of the ladies was not as numerous as usual, owing to the difficulty of getting to and from the ranges. The following are the names and scores of those who took part in the matches:—

D. H. Macdowall, M.P., arrived from Ottawa on last evening's train.

Dr. Bain, who has been attending a meeting of Physicians of the Territories at Calgary, returned home yesterday. The doctor took a run out to Banff while on his trip.

J. Courtney has removed his furniture business to the large new building recently erected by Mr. Harkness alongside of J. L. Johnson & Co's. hardware store. Mr. Courtney intends to add shortly to his large stock, which he can display to better advantage in the new building.

Supt. Whyte, of the C. P. R., came in on last night's train. He was interviewed to day respecting freight rates, change of time in arrival of train, etc. Mr. Whyte promised to look into all matters brought before his notice at an early date. He leaves again to-morrow morning.

Capt. Craig, of Carlton, came in on a business visit this week. The captain reports harvesting as well advanced in his locality. There has been no frost and the grain is in first-class condition. On Monday next the gallant captain leaves for Regina to attend a meeting of the Board of Education.

The new N. W. T. Act has been read a third time. Among other changes we understand those districts hitherto sending two representatives have been divided, and hereafter each constituency will have but one representative. This is much more satisfactory both for the people and their representatives.

At the Queens—Major Williamson, Kingsbury, Que.; A. B. Stewart, W. Drain, Duck Lake; S. McDonald, P. E. I.; H. McIntosh, T. Blackwood, Winnipeg; W. Saunders, Miss Saunders, Ottawa; D. Goddard, J. R. Tower, Kansas; J. Simmons, Gretna, Man.; J. M. Robertson, C. Unwin, A. Elderkin, Regina.

Among those who arrived by Saturday's train was Harry Shannon of Carrot River. Mr. Shannon had been to Ontario to see his friends. He brought through with him a carload of stock consisting of six mares and six head of cattle, and some farm implements for his brother who will follow in about a month, to east his lot among the people of Saskatchewan. Among the animals brought in by Mr. Shannon are a span of young Clydesdale mares 3 years old. They are magnificent animals and are just the class of horses needed in this country.

That charming summer resort, St. Andrews, N.B., is made the subject of illustration and description in the last issue of the Dominion Illustrated. L'Amour, a stirring Acadian Ballad, by James Hannay, with splendid illustrations by Miss M. B. Ellis of St. John, N.B., appears also in this number. Among general engravings are one of a British Columbia mining scene, the post office at Edinburgh, and one of London's most favorite drives. The number is full of bright and interesting features. The publishers of the Dominion Illustrated have already begun the preparation of their Christmas number, which will be the finest holiday souvenir ever issued in Canada.

PROPRIETORS

Have Decided to Hold a Special Midsummer Clearing Sale.

SPECIALTIES:

All Light Summer Prints, Dress Goods, Hats, Clothing

At Cost, and Some Goods for Less than Cost.

All we want to do is to turn these goods into ready money, and our low prices will do it. You may ask how we can do this and pay expenses. Let us reason together for a moment. We have three or four reasons. First, you know, money is scarce and worth from ten to fifteen per cent. in this country. So you see it is better to give you a few lines at cost twice a year, rather than carry the goods over until next summer. We are going to invest the proceeds of this sale in Fall and Winter Goods at a small margin, which will be another benefit to you and us.

Second reason—We must make room for large consignments that will be received in a few weeks from European, Montreal and Toronto markets.

Third reason—Our prices are a panacea for the ills of hard times. We have no rent to pay, no clerks to pay, and our expenses are very, very small indeed.

Winning Points—Low Prices, Reliability, Fair Dealing, Great Variety, Golden Bargains, Honor.

We have no percentage of loss on credit sales to charge on the goods you buy. The sale is now going on. Give us a call and we will convince you who the real leaders in low prices are.
